PHOTOGRAPHY

Before the big wedding, it's time to plan your Engagement Session! Engagement Sessions are a great way to show off the love you have for one another and start getting comfortable in front of the camera. Whether you're shooting with me or working with another photographer, here's a handy checklist that will make planning easy as can be!

- Choose a theme

Theme: _____

- Brainstorm locations for shoot

*Write down a couple places you might be interested in shooting at:
(examples: Lambeau Field, Parallel 44 Winery, Cave Point)*

- Pick your props! From sentimental gifts to your pets! What best describes your love?

List some items you want to bring along to your shoot

(Remember, if you have a more detailed theme, choose props that will go along with the story. Example – Picnic theme: bring picnic basket, blankets, food or plates, etc.)

- Hair & Make-Up – Complete the look

Choose what look you're going for. Big curls? Fancy up-do? Smokey eye? Write down how you'd like your hair and make-up done. If you have photos, bring them along for the professional hair and make-up artists to work from.
